IT'S NOT JUST A CLASS, IT'S AN A DVENTURE

Hong Kong

Description:

Because of its unique history, Hong Kong provides English speaking visitors with a very accessible opportunity to experience Asian culture. Students will meet and have a chance to get to know Hong Kong residents (including social service professionals), experience the vibrant and fast-paced life of this exciting city, visit the largest seated Buddha on the planet Earth, and taste cuisine unsurpassed anywhere, all while building their appreciation for and knowledge of Chinese culture. This course provides an opportunity for students to explore the concept of cultural intelligence while learning about the similarities and differences between the social welfare service delivery systems in the U.S. and in Hong Kong.

Travel Dates:

June 3, 2012 – June 18, 2011
