

The Learning Institute: Global Well-Being and Social Change

presents

The 1st Annual Global Well-Being Conference:

Global Youth: Understanding Challenges, Identifying Solutions, Offering Hope

July 10th-11th, 2014

For More Information: http://www.millersville.edu/socialwork/learning_institute/conference.php

Youth around the world share common challenges, including poverty, inadequate healthcare, limited educational opportunities, exploitation, gender inequality, substance abuse, mental health concerns, homelessness, gang involvement and violence, and family dysfunction. Though experiences differ in terms of chronicity, intensity, and impact, in all youth they create stress and trauma that compromise well-being.

*Proposals now accepted through January 12, 2014

For more information, please contact:

Dr. Marc Felizzi
Millersville University
Department of Social Work
marc.felizzi@millersville.edu

The Ware Center, 42 N. Prince Street, Lancaster, PA 17602