

2014 Social Work Study Abroad in beautiful Oaxaca, Mexico!

Program Highlights

- Intensive Spanish study in Oaxaca, Mexico
- Homestay with local family
- Engage with local community members
- Develop and implement research and social service projects
- Visit community service agencies
- Learn and work with a rural Women's cooperative NGO
- Up to 4 credit hours of U of U credit

Program Dates: May 25 – June 14, 2014

Estimated costs include: tuition & fees for the U of U and the local Spanish School, room & board with local families, international health insurance, pick up & return to airport, local transportation for community service projects.

Contact Christina Gringeri (cgringeri@socwk.utah.edu) for more information. Applications available online through Center for Learning Abroad.