

S. KOREA

June 15-29, 2014

K-Pop! | Kimchi | Culture | DMZ | Social Work | Urban | Social Services | and much more...

There will be information meetings about this Faculty-Led, 3-unit course offered during the summer by the lead faculty members in the near future. Stay tuned!

This course is open for undergraduate and graduate students at SJSU. The course will provide students with a framework for understanding and critically analyzing the important cultural, economic, historical, social, political, and global factors that inform the challenges facing social services and social workers in contemporary South Korea.
