

Instructor Position

Working Title: Clinical Assistant Professor

Department: School of Social Work in the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences

Close Date: Completed applications received by January 15, 2016 will be assured full consideration. Late applications will be reviewed as necessary to fill the position.

Salary: $45,500

Summary of Job Duties:

1. Teach in both a long standing and fully accredited undergraduate program and a cutting-edge integrative, Multi-Systems Life Course (MSLC) accredited graduate program within the School of Social Work.
2. Work with an excellent, energetic, and productive School of Social Work faculty.
3. Collaborate with an already strong academic partnership among all undergraduate and graduate social work programs in Arkansas.
4. Merge the roots of social work with 21st century technological, education, and research approaches to address fundamental social concerns such as poverty and social injustice.
5. Embark on a successful career in social work education while enjoying a high quality of personal and community life.
6. Provide Field instruction for both undergraduate and/or graduate students at internship placement that require off-internship site supervision.

Minimum Qualifications: The individual selected for this position will be expected to possess the following required qualifications:

1. CSWE accredited MSW degree
2. Worldview consistent with social work values and ethics
3. Teaching experience or evidence of potential for excellence in this area

Preferred Qualifications:

1. Strong teaching orientation
2. Online teaching or distance education experience and knowledge or interest in this area
3. Experience in course development
4. Practice in various settings and at various levels (e.g. direct service, administration, policy)
5. Two years of post-MSW practice experience
6. Interest and ability to teach undergraduate courses
7. Field Instructor experience
8. Field Liaison experience
9. Agreement to obtain Arkansas licensure within two years
10. Innovative, collaborative nature
11. Student, university, or community service

Special Instructions: For a complete position announcement and information regarding how to apply, visit <http://jobs.uark.edu/postings/9361>. To be considered for the position, applicants should submit (1) a letter of interest (demonstrating how your strengths match the duties and qualifications listed above), (2) complete curriculum vitae and (3) The names, titles, email addresses, and contact numbers of three professional references willing to provide letters of reference will be requested during the application process. Transcripts will be required from finalists. Completed applications received by January 15, 2016 will be assured full consideration. The University of Arkansas is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution. The University welcomes applications without regard to age, race, gender (including pregnancy), national origin, disability, religion, marital or parental status, protected veteran status, military service, genetic information, sexual orientation or gender identity. Persons must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States on the first day of employment. All applicant information is subject to public disclosure under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.