Westbrook College of Health Professions
Portland, Maine
Assistant/Associate Professor-(tenure track/clinical position)
School of Social Work

The University of New England, School of Social Work envisions a world where social workers are at the forefront of advocating with individuals and communities for human dignity and social inclusion by mobilizing efforts to end inequities, exploitation and violence. Our school offers both an MSW and a new BSW program to begin in the fall of 2016. We are seeking a dynamic individual to join our faculty at the assistant or associate level who is motivated to participate in a rapidly growing School located within a vibrant interprofessional culture with robust campus and online degree options.

We are seeking a candidate who has a passion for teaching foundation level MSW courses such as Human Behavior in the Social Environment and Social Welfare Policy and an active scholarship/research agenda. The position will start August, 2016.
