The successful candidate for this position will be qualified to teach in core curricular areas including direct micro social work practice and theory. Expertise in generalist social work practice, direct micro practice, and/or clinical practice (e.g., health, behavioral health, addictions) practice is highly desired. Expectations for the position include teaching, advising students, conducting field liaison work, developing and maintaining an active research agenda, serving on Department, College, and University committees, and developing a record of professional service in the greater community. Position is contingent upon the availability of authorized funding.
- MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
- Earned doctorate in social work or related field and Master of Social Work degree from a CSWE-accredited program. ABD will be considered with degree completion by the time of appointment.
 - At least two years post-MSW practice experience.
 - Demonstrated ability, interest, and active involvement in scholarly activity.
 - Successful record of curriculum development and/or teaching.
 - Commitment to the pursuit of social justice.
 - Commitment to empowerment and strengths-based social work practice.
 - Ability to work across multiple systems and with diverse populations.
- PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: A potential candidate's consideration will be enhanced by evidence of:
- Direct social work practice expertise in clinical, health, behavioral health, substance abuse, and/or gerontology.
 - Experience and expertise to teach advanced micro practice courses (e.g., HBSE, direct practice with individuals & families, assessments).
 - Experience with the Council on Social Work Education standards as they relate to social work education and practice.
- HOW TO APPLY & DEADLINE: A complete application must include four items: (1) a letter of application addressing qualifications and experiences for the position, department, university and service region; (2) current curriculum vitae; (3) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references; and (4) unofficial copies of graduate transcripts. Official transcripts will be required at the time of hire.
- The Faculty Search Committee will begin reviewing completed applications immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Members of the Faculty Search Committee will be available at CSWE APM to provide position information for interested applicants. This appointment commences Fall 2017.
